

Lakota West Marching Band Participation Fee Fund Application

Lakota West families looking for assistance with their children's marching band fees are encouraged to apply for grant consideration. Upbeat Club money is set aside from fundraisers and donations to cover half of the marching band fee assessed to students participating in the Lakota West Marching Band, including Color Guard.

This scholarship opportunity is for students in grades 9-12. Families interested in submitting an application for consideration must submit this application to Jill Trygier at president@lakotawestbands.org. A limited number of scholarships are available. Only one scholarship per student will be awarded in a school year.

The deadline for consideration for the 2015 marching season is July 24, 2015 (Friday of pre-camp).

*Deadlines will NOT be extended for any reason. All applications must be submitted prior to the established deadline dates.

All applications will have identifying information removed and will then be reviewed by a Selection Committee comprised of alumni band parents. Applications should be submitted by email to Jill Trygier at president@lakotawestbands.org. If you are unable to email, printed forms can be sealed in an envelope and dropped in the scholarship envelope posted on the white board during pre-camp or given to Malinda Anderson, band camp coordinator and Lakota West Upbeat Club Freshman Vice President.

Recipients will be notified by e-mail or letter if e-mail not available no later than September 1st, 2015.

The Lakota West Upbeat Club exists to encourage, support, and facilitate the Lakota West Band programs and students' participation. To learn more about the Lakota West Upbeat Club and the Lakota West Band programs, please visit our website <http://www.lakotawestbands.org/>
