

Lakota West Marching Band Angel Fund Application

Upbeat Club money is set aside from fundraisers and donations to cover marching band travel fees for mandatory competitions assessed to students participating in the Lakota West Marching Band, including Color Guard. Lakota West families looking for assistance with their children's marching band travel fees for mandatory competitions are encouraged to apply for consideration.

This scholarship opportunity is for students in grades 9-12. Families interested in applying for an Angel Fund scholarship must submit this application form. A limited number of scholarships are available.

All applications will have identifying information removed and will then be reviewed by a Selection Committee comprised of executive members of the Lakota West Upbeat Club. Applications should be submitted by email to the Upbeat Club President at: president@lakotawestbands.org. If you are unable to email, printed forms can be sealed in an envelope and given in person to the Upbeat Club President.

Recipients will be notified by e-mail, or letter if e-mail is not available, no later than the date of the trip.

The Lakota West Upbeat Club exists to encourage, support, and facilitate the Lakota West Band programs and students' participation. To learn more about the Lakota West Upbeat Club and the Lakota West Band programs, please visit our website: <http://www.lakotawestbands.org/>
