

Lakota West Band Programs

Marching Band

Concert & Jazz Bands

Color Guard/Winter Guard

ABOUT US

- Lakota West Band program serves the music education of over 1100 students in grades 7-12. Our goal to develop a student's life long love of music and expand their musical education through our programs.
- Marching Band program is the largest of the bands with almost 300 students participating in one or both Football Band or Competitive Band. The program runs from late May to November.
- Concert & Jazz Bands serve students in grades 7-12 in 15 different bands. They have performances in concerts, contests, and clinics throughout the school year.
- Color Guard and Winter Guard are open to students in 8-12 grade. Color Guard performs with the marching bands during the fall season and Winter Guard performs as a separate group at various venues during the second semester.
